Dear Ms. Whitlow:

This letter is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, (GSA 2017-001411), dated July 27, 2017, in which you requested the following:

“...any official documentation showing when clintonlibrary.gov was first purchased. It could be a current bill for the domain, showing the inception of the domain.”

Enclosed please find the document responsive to your request. Please find a spreadsheet that lists the domain was originally purchased and activated on August 8, 2005, and has been active through present.

In processing your request, GSA has withheld personal identifiable information, specifically email addresses and sign out data contained in the responsive records, in accordance with the sixth statutory exemption under FOIA, 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(6), which permits an agency to withhold “personal and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

Based on the above information, this constitutes partial denial of your request. As such, you may administratively submit your appeal online via (<https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>) or by writing to U.S. General Services Administration at the address shown below. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 120 days of the date of the response to your request.
